14 made to reflect the following:

15 “(1) CHANGES IN CONCEPTS.—For any fiscal 16 year, the adjustments produced by any change in

1 budget accounting concepts (including scorekeeping
2 conventions, budget classifications, and definitions)
3 shall equal the current-year levels of new budget au-
4 thority using up-to-date concepts minus those levels 5 using the concepts in effect before the change. Such 6 changes in concepts may only be made in consulta-
7 tion with the Committees on Appropriations and the 8 Budget of the House of Representatives and Senate,
9 CBO, and OMB. A change in budget classifications
10 includes any change from the assumption that all
11 amounts provided in appropriation Acts are classi-
12 fied as discretionary except those included under the 14 planatory statement of managers accompanying the 15 conference report on the Budget Reform Act of 22 tor (for the fiscal year immediately preceding the 23 current year) computed under subparagraph (B).

24 “(B) The inflation adjustment factor shall be 25 calculated by subtracting 1 from the ratio of (i) the

1 level of year-over-year inflation measured for the fis-
2 cal year immediately preceding the current year, and 3 (ii) the applicable estimated level for that year set
4 forth below:

5 For 1992, 1.030.

6 For 1993, 1.031.

7 For 1994, 1.027.

8 For 1995, 1.027.

9 For 1996, 1.027.

10 Inflation shall be measured by the average of the es-

19 to prepayments, with the per-contract renewal/re-
20 placement cost equal to the average current-year
21 cost of renewal or replacement contracts.

22 “(4) EMERGENCIES.—If for any fiscal year ap-
23 propriations for discretionary accounts are enacted
24 that are designated as emergency requirements by

11 “(c) RECONCILIATION PROCESS TO AVOID SEQUES-
12 TRATION.—Whenever the Committee on Appropriations of 13 the House or Senate believes that a sequestration would 14 be necessary under this section to eliminate a budget-year
15 breach in any discretionary appropriation category as a
16 result of the enactment of any appropriation Act, that 17 committee may forward a report to the Committee on 18 Ways and Means or the Committee on Finance, as the 19 case may be, recommending a revenue increase to cover
20 the shortfall. If such a revenue increase measure of suffi-
21 cient size to cover the shortfall is enacted into law during 22 that session of Congress, then no categorical sequestration
23 may occur under this section as a result of that appropria-
24 tion Act.”.

9 year through fiscal year 2000 unless it also contains an 10 amendment to section 601(a)(1) or 601(a)(2) of the Con-
11 gressional Budget Act of 1974 to reduce any combination 12 of entitlement targets or discretionary spending targets in 13 order to make that bill, joint resolution, conference report,
14 or amendment deficit-neutral for each such fiscal year.

15 “(b) WAIVER.—The point of order set forth in para-16 graph (1) may only be waived by an affirmative vote of

5 provision of this section, after the first direct spend-
6 ing sequestration, any later sequestration shall re-
7 duce direct spending by an amount in addition to,
8 rather than in lieu of, the reduction in direct spend-
9 ing in place under the existing sequestration or se-

17 “(b) ELIMINATING EXCESS DIRECT SPENDING.—
18 The amount required to be sequestered in a fiscal year
19 under subsection (a) shall be obtained from direct spend-
20 ing accounts. Each non-exempt direct spending account 21 in a category within the direct spending target shall be 22 reduced by a uniform percentage necessary to make the 23 reduction in direct spending required in that category to 24 stay within the direct spending target.

1 “(c) RECONCILIATION PROCESS TO AVOID SEQUES-
2 TRATION.—Whenever a committee of the House or Senate
3 believes that a sequestration would be necessary under this 4 section to eliminate a budget-year breach in any direct
5 spending category as a result of the enactment of any Act
6 under its jurisdiction, that committee may forward a re-
7 port to the Committee on Ways and Means or the Commit-
8 tee on Finance, as the case may be, recommending a reve-
9 nue increase to cover the shortfall. If such a revenue in-10 crease measure of sufficient size to cover the shortfall is 11 enacted into law during that session of Congress, then no 12 categorical sequestration may occur under this section as 13 a result of that Act.”.
